

“GOLDEN AGE” CONTRACT
Dog Eaze Inn PRINCE WILLIAM KENNELS

Pet's Name: _____ Approx. Age: _____

Here at The Dog Eaze Inn, A.K.A. Prince William Kennels, Inc. we do everything possible to ensure that your pet's stay is as comfortable and stress-free as possible. However, please understand that lodging is stressful for ALL animals, no matter how much loving care is provided. They are in strange surroundings with people they do not know, and their daily routine is greatly changed from the home environment. The older the pet, the more he or she will be bothered by stress. While stress does not CAUSE illnesses, it is well documented that it CAN cause an underlying illness to surface. That is, the pet has had the illness for some time, but when the animal is stressed the illness will show up. This can include decreased liver or kidney function, loss of heart or lung function, or viral or bacterial illnesses. I understand these concerns and accept that The Dog Eaze Inn, A.K.A. Prince William Kennels, Inc. is in no way liable for illnesses or death caused by the stress of lodging a geriatric pet. I understand that stress can cause existing conditions to surface, and do not hold The Dog Eaze Inn, A.K.A. Prince William Kennels, Inc. responsible for these conditions.

In the extremely unlikely event that it becomes necessary, we will make arrangements with a local vet or crematorium to preserve the pet's body until your return. If this is not a satisfactory arrangement, please indicate below what course of action you would like for us to follow:

ALSO, if for any reason you do not want to be notified of your pet's death until you return please indicate by checking box and initialing.

Do not contact me until the date of my return. Initials: _____

Additional request or comments:

I have read and agree to the above contract.
